

Knowledge Create an activity book for worm. Make a cover. Title it Worm's Activity Book. Then, on the inside, create pictures that show some of worm's favorite activities.	Comprehension What are three things you learned about worms? Make a science textbook page, telling us about worms. Include a picture from the Internet. Use The Science Behind Worms sheet for your textbook page.
Synthesis Create a new diary entry for worm. Tell about a vacation he may go on. Where would he go? What would he do there? Be creative!	Application Draw a diagram of your home. Then, draw a diagram of worm's home. How is it like your home? How is it different? Use the Our Homes sheet to help you.	Evaluation Are worms important to us? Or are they more of a problem? Why or why not? Use facts you have learned from the story to defend your answer. Then, tell your class your ideas.
	Analysis Use the Venn diagram to compare a worm to another animal.	