

Appendix

Research Reporting Models

Use the following models to enable students to report the findings of their research. Each model requires students to find information from a reliable source, and then transpose that information into a new format. This transposition is what Bloom would label as “synthesis.” When students synthesize information, they must understand it, internalize it, and, consequently, place it in their long-term memories.

Bio-Poem	74
Bio-Poem #2.....	75
Important Dates	76
The Important Thing	77
Acrostic Poem.....	78
Historical Character Report Card.....	79
Using Evidence	80
Contrast Poem	81
Database	82