

The “Who’s Been Here?” Report - Fiction

WHAT TO DO

A good detective looks for clues to solve a mystery. What clues can you illustrate about a particular character in literature? Draw your clues on one page of your “Who’s Been Here?” book. On the next page draw the character and tell how the clues relate to the character.

EXAMPLES

Clues to Cinderella

- A scrub brush
- A fireplace
- A glass slipper

Clues to Ebenezer Scrooge

- Money
- A top hat and scarf
- A ghost

Clues to Homer Price

- A lunchroom sign
- A doughnut
- A diamond bracelet

HERE IS HOW YOUR BOOK WILL LOOK

