
The Observation Report - Fiction

WHAT TO DO

Choose a setting from a fairy tale, short story or novel you have read. Use the pattern below to tell about the setting.

EXAMPLE

Come with me to the vine covered cottage in the moss green woods. Listen for the sound of bubbling porridge. Follow the bear family dressed in their Sunday best as they stroll into the forest filled with sounds of happy birds. See the little girl with golden hair hunt for a welcoming cottage. The robin leads her and flies to a cottage that looks just right for a place to eat and sleep. And the child gathers food and a bed for the night. And when night comes the bears return home to find a golden-haired child asleep in their home.

USING THE MODEL

Use the pattern below for your observation report. Possible settings:

The barn where Charlotte has her web (Charlotte's Web)

The wilderness where Brian survived (Hatchet)

The castle of the Sleeping Beauty.

Title _____

Come with me to the _____ Listen for the _____

Follow the _____ as it _____ into the _____. See the _____ hunt for _____. The _____ flies into a _____ that looks just right for a

_____. And _____

gather _____ for the _____.

And when night comes, the _____ asleep in their _____.
