

PRETRIAL DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

1. What was important to the Emperor?
2. Why did the Emperor want a new suit made of the weavers' magic cloth?
3. How were the weavers paid?
4. Should the Emperor have paid the weavers before the suit was made?
5. If the Emperor's Minister saw no suit or an invisible suit, why didn't he warn the Emperor of the problem?
6. What would you have done if you were the Emperor's Minister?
7. Did the weavers trick the Emperor?
8. What facts could prove that the Emperor was tricked and robbed?
9. Do the facts show that the charges against the weavers should stand as filed?
10. Based on the facts, do you as a class (acting as the Grand Jury) have enough evidence to ask for a jury trial in this case of the Emperor Vs the Weavers?

WHAT OTHER QUESTIONS CAN YOU THINK OF TO ASK THE EMPEROR, THE WEAVERS, OR OTHER CHARACTERS IN THE STORY? (Save these for the witnesses in this case.)
