

Table of Contents

Introduction.....7

The Overall Process11

 Step 1: Choosing Your Unit’s Focus: *The Overarching/Unifying Concept*15

 Step 2: Working to Understand What is Most Important in Your Discipline(s): *Summative or Final Assessment*19

 Step 3: Determining What is Important for Students to Learn: Enduring Value.....28

 Step 4: How to Write Questions that Guide the Unit: *Essential Questions /
 Unit Questions*45

 Step 5: Examine What the Students Need to Discover: Discovering and Uncovering.....52

 Step 6: How to Engage Your Students: *Engagement through the Invitation/Hook and Learning Experiences*55

 Step 7: The Importance of *Pre-Assessments and Formative Assessments:
 Learning Check*.....61

 Step 8: Additional Assessments and Their Uses: *Affective Assessments or Measures*65

 Step 9: A Few Additional Notes about Differentiation: *Differentiation can be added throughout the unit*69

 Step 10: Reflective Questions.....70

 The Overall Process for Designing Units Checklist71

 The A,B,Cs of Teacher Input & 10 Steps of Purposeful Design Graphic Organizer72

Resources for Differentiation.....199

Bibliography200

The Units	73
Teacher-Tested Design Template	75
1. Labyrinth	76
2. Animals: Life Cycles and Adaptations	86
3. Electricity	91
4. Fairy Tales	96
5. Lincoln: Conflict and Change.....	101
6. Units of Measurement.....	106
7. Discovering Culture through Poetry: Listening to the Voice of the People	111
8. Historical and Contemporary Heroism	116
9. Immigration.....	121
10. Learning about Conflict: Pre Civil War.....	126
11. Create Your Own Government: Pre-Civil War	131
12. Fairness at the Carnival.....	139
13. Weather	144
14. Many Journeys . . . One Home.....	150
15. Forest Ecosystems.....	155
16. Global Awareness	162
17. Living with Landforms	166
18. Changing Illinois.....	174
19. Watershed Poetry	181
20. Sounds, Waves, and Vibrations	191